Data proves that together these eight policies can decrease police violence by 72%

Working with legal experts, advocates, and academics with an expertise in this area, eight major policies are identified that establish meaningful restrictions on police use of force – especially deadly force - against civilians.

1. BAN CHOKEHOLDS & STRANGLEHOLDS

Allowing officers to choke or strangle civilians, in many cases where less lethal force could be used instead, results in the unnecessary death or serious injury of civilians.

2. REQUIRE DE-ESCALATION

Require officers to de-escalate situations, where possible, by communicating with subjects, maintaining distance, and otherwise eliminating the need to use force.

3. REQUIRE WARNING BEFORE SHOOTING

Require officers to give a verbal warning, when possible, before shooting at a civilian

4. EXHAUST ALL OTHER MEANS BEFORE SHOOTING

Require officers to exhaust all other reasonable means before resorting to deadly force.

5. DUTY TO INTERVENE

Require officers to intervene and stop excessive force used by other officers and report these incidents immediately to a supervisor.

6. BAN SHOOTING AT MOVING VEHICLES

Restrict officers from shooting at moving vehicles, which is regarded as a particularly dangerous and ineffective tactic.

7. REQUIRE USE OF FORCE CONTINUUM

Develop a Force Continuum that limits the types of force and/or weapons that can be used to respond to specific types of resistance.

8. REQUIRE COMPREHENSIVE REPORTING

Require officers to report each time they use force or threaten to use force against civilians.
